For people who mourn the loss of a loved one

Lord of all gentleness, You are close to the broken-hearted. We entrust into your care those who mourn the loss of a loved one this day. Surround them with your love and comfort them in their sorrow. Grant that they may not be overwhelmed by their loss. May they know the consolation and support of the Christian community. Give them confidence in your goodness and strength to meet the days ahead. We ask this through Christ our Lord. Amen.

A message from An Garda Siochana

An Garda Siochana wish to warn people of a doorstep fraud and theft offence which has become prevalent over the last number of weeks. Elderly People are being targeted at their homes by Criminals who are impersonating Gardaí. The offenders are fraudulently pretending to be plain clothes Gardaí who are checking for dud money. They have duped people all around the country and stolen their cash on the pretence of checking to see if it is genuine money. They are producing false identification to assist the process.

An Garda Siochana will never ask people about their finances on the doorstep of their homes and will never ask to check money

Always ask for Identification and do not be afraid to question it. If in doubt politely tell the caller that you want to verify their true identity. If necessary contact your local Garda Station who will be able to establish quickly if the caller is a member of An Garda Siochana.

Report any such activity to your local Garda Station even if you have not been the victim of a theft. That report could save a neighbour or someone else close by.

Please check on elderly neighbours, family and friends and advise and reassure them

Review by the National Board for Safeguarding Children in the Catholic Church in Ireland.

Letter from Bishop Denis - 21 November 2022

Review by the National Board for Safeguarding Children in the Catholic Church in Ireland

I am pleased to announce that the National Board for the Safeguarding of Children in the Catholic Church in Ireland (the National Board) will be commencing their review of safeguarding practice in the Diocese of Kildare and Leighlin on December 12th.

The National Board was established in 2006 to provide advice, services and assistance in furtherance of the development of the safeguarding of children within the Roman Catholic Church on the island of Ireland; and to monitor compliance with legislation, policy and best practice and to report on these activities.

The Diocese entered into an agreement with the National Board through signing a Memorandum of Understanding and committed to the Safeguarding Children – Policy and Standards for the Catholic Church in Ireland 2016 issued by the National Board.

To assess our compliance, I invited the National Board to undertake a review of practice this year. The Diocese was previously reviewed in 2012 under the Safeguarding Children – Policy and Standards for the Catholic Church in Ireland 2008.

The purpose of this second review is to assess the safeguarding practice in the Diocese of Kildare and Leighlin against the Catholic Church in Ireland's current standards as detailed in Safeguarding Children – Policy and Standards for the Catholic Church in Ireland 2016.

In advance of this, I encourage anyone who has a child safeguarding concern or who wishes to report an allegation of child abuse to contact a Diocesan Designated Liaison Person or An Garda Síochána or TUSLA or contact the National Board (details below).

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all who encourage and facilitate children's involvement in parish activities and all those who contribute to safeguarding in their local parishes.

With every best wish, +Denis Nulty - Bishop of Kildare and Leighlin

Transmitting Faith in Contemporary Culture

A zoom gathering has been organised by the Association of Catholics in Ireland takes place on Thursday October 6th, 2022 at 8.00 pm. Professor Michael Conway (Professor of Faith and

Mountrath Community School

Christmas Carol Service 2022

Held in the School because of the poor weather conditions on Wed. last.

Introduction: Headboy & Headgirl Carol: Christmas Hallelujah

Christmas Traditions:

Each country has its own customs associated with Christmas. In Ireland there's a tradition of placing a lighted candle in the window on Christmas Eve night, as a sign of welcome to the Holy Family.

In Italy, in 1223, Francis of Assisi was staying at a small friary in Greccio in the north of the country. A rich man living nearby offered the friars any gift they wanted at Christmas. Francis had a simple request. He said:

"I want to spend Christmas with you. Up in the hillside you have a cave. There prepare a crib full of hay; bring an ox and a donkey. I want to feel and see with my own eyes how much the Son of God wanted to be poor, when He was born out of love of us."

From this request we now have the tradition of placing a crib in our homes and churches at Christmas time.

The singing of carols is also very much part of the Christmas season. The most popular of these carols, Silent Night, was sung for the first time at the church of Oberdorf in Austria at Midnight Mass, Christmas 1818. Now, over 200 years later, our choir will sing it again, in both Irish and English.

Carol: Silent Night/Night of Silence

Student: More than two thousand years have gone by since the Son of God was born in Bethlehem, and laid lovingly in a manger by Mary, his mother. As we prepare to celebrate the birth of Jesus this Christmas, we pray that this season may be one of peace, love and happiness in all our families.

Just as St. Joseph, even though not the father of Jesus, welcomed Him into his heart and into his home we pray now that our hearts and homes, as well as our world, may be flooded with the grace of the Lord's coming.

Your response to the following intercessions is Lord Jesus we pray.

1. Come into our hearts. Lord Jesus we pray.
2. Come into our homes. Lord Jesus we pray.
3. Come to those who are lonely. Lord Jesus we pray.
4. Come to those who are fearful. Lord Jesus we pray.
5. Come to all who are sick, worried or stressed. Lord Jesus we pray.
6. Come to those who are grieving. Lord Jesus we pray.

7. Come to those who have no faith. Lord Jesus we pray.
8. Come to those who have no hope. Lord Jesus we pray.
9. Come to all victims of violence. Lord Jesus we pray.
10. Come to those in the grip of addiction. Lord Jesus we pray.

Carol: The First Noel (adapted)

Prayer of the Faithful

1. As we approach Christmas, we pray for everyone gathered here. May God bless us and keep us safe during this special time.
Lord hear us. Lord graciously hear us.
2. For our families and those we love, that this Christmas may be a happy and peaceful one for them. Lord hear us. Lord graciously hear us.
3. For those who find Christmas to be a difficult time of the year. May they experience whatever assistance they need to help them through their troubles and may they be comforted in their time of need.
Lord hear us. Lord graciously hear us.

4. We give thanks for all who assist others in any way. In particular this week, we thank God for everyone who has contributed both food and money to our fundraising efforts for the local St. Vincent de Paul Society. We thank God too for the members of Mountrath SVP and for all the good work that they do.

Lord hear us. Lord graciously hear us.

5. We remember at this time those who are ill, either at home or in hospital, especially members of our school community, as well as family members and friends. May God bless them with healing, friendship and comfort.

Lord hear us. Lord graciously hear us.

6. We pray for all our loved ones who have passed from this life, especially those who have died recently. May they reap the eternal rewards of their earthly labours and may those who mourn their passing be comforted in their time of grief.

Lord hear us. Lord graciously hear us.

Carol: Merry Christmas (Canon in D)

A Reading from St. Luke's Gospel

While Mary and Joseph were in Bethlehem for the census, the time came for Mary to have her baby and she gave birth to a son, her first-born. She wrapped him in swaddling clothes and laid him in a manger because there was no room for them in the inn.

In the countryside close by there were shepherds who lived in the fields and took it in turns to watch their flocks during the night. The angel of the Lord appeared to them and the glory of the Lord shone around them. They were terrified, but the angel said:

“Do not be afraid. Listen, I bring you news of great joy, a joy to be shared by the whole people. Today in the town of David a saviour has been born to you; he is Christ the Lord. And here is a sign for you: you will find the baby wrapped in swaddling clothes and lying in a manger”. So they hurried away – and found everything just as the angels had said.

The word of the Lord.

Carol: Rose in December

A Reading from St. Matthew's Gospel

After Jesus had been born at Bethlehem in Judea during the reign of King Herod, some wise men came to Jerusalem from the east. “Where is the infant king of the Jews?” they asked. “We saw his star as it rose and have come to do him homage". When King Herod heard this he was perturbed, and so was the whole of Jerusalem. He called together all the chief priests and the scribes of the people, and enquired of them where the Christ was to be born. "At Bethlehem in Judea", they told him.

Then Herod summoned the wise men to see him privately. He asked them the exact date on which the star had appeared, and sent them on to Bethlehem. "Go and find out all about the child," he said "and when you have found him, let me know, so that I too may go and do him homage."

Having listened to what the king had to say, they set out. And there in front of them was the star they had seen rising; it went forward and halted over the place where the child was. The sight of the star filled them with delight, and going into the house they saw the child with his mother Mary, and falling to their knees they did him homage. Then, opening their treasures, they offered him gifts of gold, frankincense and myrrh.

The word of the Lord.

Carol: Thorns in the Straw

A Christmas Prayer

Concluding Prayer

Let us put ourselves into the hands of the Lord and pray that God will bless us and our families during the coming holy days. May all of us help to make our homes places of joy, love and peace. May we be generous and considerate, not only thinking about ourselves but helping others to enjoy the blessings of Christmas. May our loving God bless us all, in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Amen.
